SOCIETY

Beautiful in every detail was the colonial party with which the freshmen of St. Joseph's academy entertained the other high school classes Tuesday afternoon as a courtesy to the graduates. It began at 2 o'clock with the dancing of the minuet in the high school rooms which had been thrown together and elaborately decorated with flags and red and white and blue streamers. The streamers fastened to the walls and drawn to the chandelier in the center of the room formed a canopy over the room, while large flags curtained the doors and windows. A small platform at one end of the room was canopied with flags and here Sister Superior received the guests who, curtaining in the old-fashioned way, presented their cards, and it developed that there were present George and Martha Washington, Mr. and Mrs. John Quincy Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jefferson, Lafayette and a host of other celebrities. All were in lovely colonial costumes. Following the minuet there was a program of dances after which dainty refreshments were served in the recreation room, which was decorated in the school colors blue and gold. The favors were small hatchets with the inscription "I cannot tell a lie." The remainder of the afternoon was spent informally.

The Schuyler Coffey chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be entertained informally Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. M. Coen, 721 Park av. The chapter usually gives a colonial party each year at this time, but owing to the hardship in the city there will be none this year. The meeting, however, will be important as the annual business meeting when the election of officers will take place.

The members of the Quid Est club and their families were entertained Monday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Powers, 1016 Lincoln way W., in celebration of the birthday anniversaries of two of the members. The evening was spent with games and music and light refreshments were served.

Day students of Notre Dame university gave their first dance in St. Patrick's hall Monday evening. The affair was a wonderful success, the hall being taxed to its capacity the entire evening. The stage was used for cards for those who were unable to enjoy the dancing. Decorations were carried out in gold and blue, while bunting, flags and pennants were prettily arranged about the room. Among the local patrons and patronesses who helped to make the first ball a success were Mr. and Mrs. Michael Cahan, Mr. and Mrs. George Hull, Mr. and Mrs. James Welch, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Williams. The committee in charge was Mark Duncan, Louis Wolf, Howard Roban, Joseph Stepieler and Edward Marcus.

The Monday Afternoon Sewing circle, which was to have met yesterday at the home of Mrs. William Sibley, was postponed indefinitely.

Mrs. Martha Bausman, 726 Cleveland av., very pleasantly entertained the members of the O. D. T. club Monday afternoon. The afternoon was spent with needlework, after which the hostess served light refreshments. The club will meet March 1 with Mrs. C. W. Myers, 453 Vistula av.

There was a large attendance at the Valentine party given by the O. D. T. club at the home of Mrs. William Sibley, 722 W. Washington av., March 17.

At an unusually interesting and instructive meeting of the department of art of the Progress club Monday afternoon, Mrs. Walter Baker read a paper of extraordinary merit on the life of Velasquez. Owing to the length of the paper, Mrs. W. W. Funk, who had been requested to read her paper on the life and work of El Greco, which was of unusual excellence, was unable to do so and only a brief synopsis was given.

"The Trend of Events" is the present subject of discussion of the Worth club. At regular meeting which was held Monday evening at the Progress club rooms, the affairs of Asia were the topic of the evening. Mrs. E. Retting leading. A discussion of Japan, China and India followed. The next meeting will be Feb. 22 at the Progress club.

CLAIMS SHE WITNESSED WEDDING.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y.—Mrs. Almee Crocker Gouraud has made affidavit here that she was present when Mrs. Eugenie Ferrier Lord was married in San Francisco city hall by an alderman on Nov. 24, 1888. Her deposition is in connection with the request of Mrs. Eugenie Ferrier Lord that the will of Thomas A. Lord, retired lawyer, who died in Yonkers on June 17 last, be reopened to probate that she can prove she is his widow. Mr. Lord was believed to be a bachelor and none of his estate of a quarter of a million dollars went to any of his relatives.

Members of the W. C. Needle club were entertained Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. William Wyant, 1044 Michigan av., with a valentine party. The evening was spent with cards, favors at which were won by Mrs. J. Whaley, Mrs. Fred Spotts, Mrs. Cant, Mrs. William Mower, Norman Kizer and Mr. Cant. A valentine box added to the evening's pleasure. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess.

Allen Reed, 1815 Fellows st., entertained 12 of his little kindergarten friends at a valentine party Saturday afternoon. Games and contests amused the little ones. The favor in the contest was won by Kermit Weaver, 110 Gayfield st. Light refreshments were served.

Miss Clara Freund of Indianapolis and Thomas M. Luckey of South Bend will be married this evening at St. Patrick's parsonage in Indianapolis. Rev. Father O'Connell officiating. The young couple will be attended by Mrs. Emil Sharp, sister of the bride, and Miss Katherine Luckey, sister of the bridegroom, both of South Bend. Mr. and Mrs. Luckey will return to South Bend immediately and will live for the present with Mr. and Mrs. Emil Sharp, 110 Gayfield st. Mr. Luckey travels for the Studebaker corporation.

American Girls Are Loveliest Says Artist

Designer of Fashion Trophy Enumerates Superior Qualities of Her Countrywomen.

CHICAGO, Feb. 16.—Step in a little closer, gentlemen, so you can get this. Some new dope on the subject of "Beautiful Woman." In the first place, if you are looking for the little lady who has all the rest of 'em backed clear out of the beauty parlor and down onto the sidewalk, here's a tip. Get an American girl. Experts on the subject of pulchritude, have spoken as follows, to wit:

The American woman simply has it all over everybody else, when it comes to looks. The typical American woman is about five feet, eight inches tall in her new sand-topped kicks. She has rather square shoulders, beautifully modeled shoulders and arms, a semi-classical profile and eyes and hair that subscribe to the policy of neutrality. She has rather small, shapely feet, and small hands with beautiful tapering fingers. Stand back boys, your crowding! Well, anyway, that's about the way she stacks up.

All this information was gleaned today from Nancy Cox-McCormack, the southern society woman who has been commissioned by the Fashion Art league of America to design the Gossard trophy which is to be presented at the National Fashion fete to be held in Chicago, beginning Feb. 22. The sculptress today, after listening to Nancy Cox-McCormack's description of the typical American beauty he was so overcome that he began shouting "Votes for Women."

"And American men are the finest looking in the world, too," said the sculptress, coyly. Better clip that sentence, boys, and show it to Friend Wife.

"The American woman is the fusion of the best in all the world. And here's another thing. The American woman is just as pretty at 40 as she is at 20. And what other nation can say that?"

The trophy which the sculptress is making for the Fashion Art league was donated by H. W. Gossard, a Chicago millionaire, who wants to see Chicago made the fashion center of the world. More than 150 originally modeled American designed gowns will be shown at the National Fashion fete of the Fashion Art league of America, the week beginning Feb. 22.

It will mark the first time in history that an actual thrust has been made at the supremacy of Paris as a fashion arbiter.
